Protopresbyter Thomas Hopko is the Dean Emeritus of St Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary and the retired Professor of Dogmatic Theology. He presently lives with his wife in Ellwood City, PA, where he serves as priest to the nuns at the Orthodox Monastery of the Transfiguration. He is the author of numerous books and articles including Speaking the Truth in Love, Women and the Priesthood, and the catechetical series, The Orthodox Faith: An Elementary Series on the Orthodox Christian Faith.

In addition to his numerous speaking engagements around the US, Fr Thomas is well-known through his three podcast series Speaking the Truth in Love: Compelling Commentary on Christian Belief and Behavior, Worship in Spirit and Truth, and The Names of Jesus, which are the most widely listened to programs on Ancient Faith Radio.
